5	HUE TOUR	Capital City from centuries ago. Along the banks of the Perfume River lies the ancient capital of Hue, which is well known for its historic monuments, which have earned it a place in UNESCO's World Heritage Sites. So after breakfast we take a tour of this historical city. During 1968 Tet Offensive the city suffered considerable damage by both the North Vietnamese and American military forces. You will see bullet marks on many of the historical building even though a thorough rebuild has taken place. Today's itinerary includes visits to: Cau Ngoi Village/ Cau Ngoi Local market to learn about the local life. Hue Old Citadel, Thien Mu Pagoda, and Minh Mang Tomb The rest of the day is yours to enjoy the facilities at your hotel or wander around the streets.	Breakfast

6	HUE – DA NANG – HAI VAN PASS – HOI AN TOUR	Hoi An was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO as a well-preserved example of a south-east Asian trading port of the 15th to 19th centuries, with buildings that display a unique blend of local and foreign influences. After breakfast you drive out of the city and along the coast road until you reach the mountains. At the top of the pass the scenery becomes spectacular. Climbing steeply you reach the picturesque spot of Hai Van pass (Cloudy Pass) with its views of the City of Da Nang. Whilst passing through the city, we stop off at the Cham Sculpture Museum before paying a visit to Non Nuoc Beach and Marble Mountain before arriving at your hotel. You are close to the Old Town so a walking tour will take you to: Japanese Covered Bridge, Chinese Assembly Halls, Tan Ky Ancient House and the vibrant market The rest of the day is at leisure to explore the city.	Breakfast

7	COUNTRYSIDE ACTIVITIES	After breakfast you will head out of the hustle and bustle of the city to countryside. Our interesting day will go as follows: Take a short drive to Cam Thanh Coconut Village, where you get a feel for what village life is like. Board your Bamboo Basket Boat and then float along the river to the Water Coconut Forest to try your hand at catching crabs and shrimp. Coconuts play an important part in the lives of the villages. Here you will see the many uses of the coconut plant. Continue to Tra Que Herb Garden and try your hand at hoeing, finding uses for seaweed, transplanting and watering vegetables before speaking with the local farmers to find out what it's truly like to live in a Vietnamese village. Enjoy a cooking class by joining the villagers in preparation for lunch in a traditional way, which is always the highlight of this trip – oh and you get to eat what you have prepared! Afterwards return to the hotel. The rest of the day is yours! Relax and enjoy the facilities on offer at your hotel or explore the surrounding area prior to getting a good night's sleep.	Breakfast Lunch
