11	Jerusalem		Breakfast
12	Jerusalem	A full day at leisure to enjoy this endlessly fascinating city on your own.	Breakfast
13	Jerusalem / Tel Aviv	Depart Jerusalem to visit the Absalom (Soreq) Caves discovered by chance in a miners’ blast some 40 years ago. Their stalactites and stalagmites date back 300,000 years. Continue to Natan Rappaport’s haunting bronze monument, the Scrolls of Fire, soaring high in the scenic Judean Hills. Then, on to the military junction at Latrun, once the border with Jordan; view the French Trappist Monastery and visit the Tank Division Memorial. Continue to the Palmach Museum (subject to appointment confirmation), for a virtual tour of the history of this underground military organization prior to the establishment of the State of Israel. Arrive at your hotel in Tel Aviv for overnight.	Breakfast
14	Tel Aviv	Visit Independence Hall where Ben Gurion fervently proclaimed Israel’s independence in 1948. Continue to the Weizmann House, the unique and grand home of	Breakfast

Chaim Weizmann, first President of Israel and the founder of the Weizmann Institute of Science. The house is presented in a living way, as if its residents are still living on the premises. On to the pre-state underground Ammunitions Factory at Machon Ayalon (another site which JNF helped restore) to learn about the activities of the Hagannah. We'll then have a great discovery of Tel Aviv as we drive through the main streets of this city known as the "White City". Tel Aviv has been proclaimed a UNESCO World Heritage Site for its splendid Bauhaus Architecture and has the largest number of buildings in this unique style of any city in the world! Continue past the Mann Auditorium, (Israeli Philharmonic), Habimah Theatre, the impressive Opera House and Yitzhak Rabin Square, dedicated to the late Prime Minister. Onward to charming and quaint Neve Tzedek (Tel Aviv's "Soho"), the first neighborhood constructed outside Old Jaffa; the old buildings are amazing! Just down the road is the newly developed open-air pedestrian mall—the "Tachana" converted from an old railroad station. You'll have some time to stroll through the shops here and perhaps enjoy coffee or an ice cream in one of the many cafes before we head back to your hotel (those wishing to spend some more time here can taxi back to the hotel, just minutes away)
